With this expansion, you begin the game with an employment card that provides you with a regular income each turn and a number of things you must do in order to get fired.

You will also have a chance to find yourself a good, demanding wife. A wedding is such a romantic way to spend piles of money in a hurry, right? The expansion contains a set of nuptial cards. So get down on one knee and pop the question! Each game can also have a different planning board to bring additional variety to the game.
