You compete in three distinct endeavors: trying to lose an election, trying to get rid of all your possessions, or trying to offend the most influential people in high society. Each competition has its own module. You can play any two in combination or play all three simultaneously. Each module interacts with the other two. To win you will need to balance your strategy and compete well in all areas.

The Prodigals Club is thematically related to Vladimír Suchý's Last Will. You do not need Last Will to play. Prodigals stands alone. However, the rulebook also explains how to play the two games together, combining the challenges of both games.

A stand alone game that also expands:
